Admission to Advanced Course in Digital Media

डिजिटल माध्यमे प्रगत अभ्यासक्रम

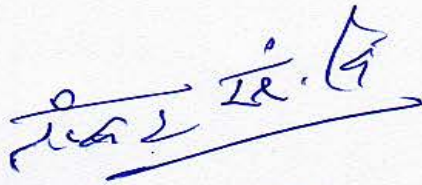

The department received less number of applications for the self-supporting course - Advanced Course in Digital Media. Hence as per the University directions all candidates who appeared for the Written Entrance Examination are found eligible for admission in the First Round.

Students who have applied online, but did not appear for the written examination will be given preference in the second round of admission.

If there are any seats vacant after this process there will be spot admissions at the Department level, notice for which will be displayed later.

Admission Round: June 29 to July 8, 2026

Candidates must submit their admission application online, along with all required documents, during the admission period. Once the department approves the application, candidates must pay the course admission fee immediately to confirm their admission.
